Tonight The Big Night at Armory

Final Attendance Record to be Broken Along With Records For Everything Else That Have Fallen in This 12-O'Clock Show in a 9-O'Clock Town (Daylight Saving.)

The event of the day at the Automobile show on Friday was the unexpected visit of Henry W. Stryker, president of the Kingston Automobile Dealers, and the reception he received. Mr. Stryker, by organizing and holding together the Automotive Dealers, laid the foundation for the wonderful success of the show. For several months he has been in impaired health and only a few weeks ago underwent several operations of a very dangerous nature that had to be undertaken in order to save his life. He is still in a hospital and his first trip outside was taken to visit the show.

When Mr. Stryker entered the armory Vice President Sutcliffe happened to see him and at once started the welcome. Every horn in the building was blown for two or three minutes and as soon as the horns stopped the orchestra struck up "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," following it with "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here."

"If we could only get John Millard out to the show we'd be a happy bunch," said Vice President Sutcliffe Friday night. "Next to Henry Stryker, John Millard has done more for the organization and the show than any of us and the two are worth more than the whole crowd together. It's hard luck to have our two best men too sick to be with us and see the result of their work. If John had been able to get out we would have put him in a Ford and run the car right in the armory and through the aisles."

Friday 1,093 paid admission tickets were collected at the door and of these 1,200 were bought at the box office. This attendance is 199 greater than on the second day last year.

Tonight is the last chance to see the greatest collection of automobiles ever assembled under one roof in Kingston, if not in the Hudson valley. The Kingston automobile show will come to a close this evening and anyone interested at all in automobiles, either from a driver's or a dodger's viewpoint, will have a last chance to examine them at close quarters this evening. It may truthfully be said that the present show has never been equalled in Kingston and is equally as good as many shows in towns four times as large as Kingston.

The attendance Friday evening was even better than the opening day and tonight will undoubtedly be a record breaker. Many Saturday night visitors from out of town will attend the show and the attendance this afternoon and evening should break all previous records.

One thing which attracted attention Friday evening and greatly pleased the dealers was the number of people who were really interested in the cars from a purchaser's viewpoint. Many of the inquiries made of the various salesmen were from people interested in the purchase of cars and not a few sales were actually made.

The booths of the accessory dealers down at the entrance and in the rooms just off the drill shed attracted the attention of large crowds. Among the big displays of useful and necessary accessories for an automobile are the displays of M. H. Herzog, L. S. Winne & Company and the Brown Auto Supply Company. These three firms carry a full line of all kinds of accessories and their booths at the show are attractively made up. At each booth there is some special thing which attracts the attention of the crowd.

Among the tire men who have exhibits at the show may be seen Harris Brown of the Brown Tire Company right at the entrance to the armory. "Brownie" has his usual broad smile and a good line of talk as well as a good line of tires. Across the way is James Austin showing Victor, Dayton and Norwalk tires. Friday evening A. G. Carr stopped at the booth of Mr. Austin for a moment and while there guessed the number of kernels of corn in a bottle. He guessed 1137 and when counted it was found there were 1133. As a reward for his good judgment he was given free a 30x3 1/2 Dayton tire.

At the booth of Frank L. Brown is shown the Willard battery and also the Apollo magneto. The Apollo magneto, made in Kingston, has created a favorable impression on those who have examined it and especially the model for Ford cars. Ary Bush and the Harlan Top Company, both located in the side rooms, show automobile tops and upholstery. The Harlan Top Company has a display of slip covers for cars as well as tops and upholstery. Carl Miller & Son have a booth in the side room where are shown the Westinghouse battery and a water pumping system.

The Vanderlyn Vulcanizing and Battery Company, distributors for Exide batteries, also have an attractive booth.

An effort to describe in detail every one of the booths would be impossible and the only way to know just what an attractive show it really is, is to attend and tonight is the last chance to attend.

FORD CREATES LINCOLN INTEREST

"Yes, sir, it will do anything a Ford will do," is the reply made by the Millard demonstrators when there is an inquiry as to how the Lincoln motor car will perform. "Anything Henry Ford makes is made right," was the reply Lester Decker made when asked if the Lincoln was as good as it looked. The Lincoln is the first and a car in the big class selling around the $3,500 mark. The attention and comment. Many people have become highly interested since Henry Ford took over the manufacture of the Lincoln car and placed it on the market as a Ford product. With the addition of the Lincoln car to the Ford dealers line they have a combination hard to beat, a low priced car too well known to need description, and a car in the big car class selling around the $3,500 mark. The Lincoln is an eight cylinder car. James Millard & Son Company, local agents for the Ford products has had a number of inquiries about the Lincoln and always have a number of people about their booth examining the car.

CHICAGO AUTO THIEVES TAKEN

By Telegram to The Freeman. Chicago, March 25.—Twelve members of a band of automobile thieves that is held responsible for the theft of more than 1,000 machines during the last few months, are to be arraigned in police court here today. Police believe the arrest of the 12 has broken up a ring responsible for more than half of the automobile thefts reported in Chicago recently.

One of the men held is a mounted policeman, several others are well known in local automobile circles. Included among those under arrest is Mrs. May Woods, formerly a stenographer for a local automobile firm.

The band, according to the police, maintained a regular "clearing house" through which stolen cars were marketed.

The policeman in custody is James Forbes, Lawrence Mangano, head of an automobile accessory establishment is said to have headed the clearing house.

MURDER GOES ON IN BELFAST

By Telegram to The Freeman. Belfast, March 25.—Outrages are continuing in this city today. One man, one girl and one baby were shot in the same house last night. Several other killings were reported and numerous attempts to commit murder were recorded.

Street firing today has been most intense. In some sections the main streets are almost shambles as a result of the conflicts.

This promises to be one of the worst week-ends marked by outrages, unless drastic efforts are made to restore order.

Annual Easter Concert. The nineteenth annual Easter concert of the Spring Street Lutheran Church will be held Wednesday and Thursday, April 26 and 27, in the school hall. The program consists of drills, action songs, dances and a playlet entitled "Her Busy Morning," produced entirely by the children. Tickets are now on sale.

Richard Trial Suspended. By Telegram to The Freeman. New York, March 25.—The defense will complete its case in the abduction and criminal assault charges preferred against "Tex" Rickard by 15-year-old Sarah Schoenfeld on Monday. There was no session of court today.

FORD ADDS TO WORKERS' LEISURE

By Telegram to The Freeman. Detroit, March 25.—Promotion of ideal home life among the 50,000 employees of the Ford Motor Co. was given by President Edsel Ford today as the reason for reduction of the company's work week to five days. The change, which will affect all Ford plants without changing the daily wage scale of $6, will leave Ford workers two days a week free and will create jobs for 3,000 additional men, Mr. Ford announced.

"The Ford Company has always sought to preserve ideal home conditions for its workers," Mr. Ford explained. "We believe that ideal home life demands more time than is usually open to the factory worker for devotion to home interests—for self-improvement, gardening and building up the home. The five day week of forty hours will be a permanent policy."

CHARLEY'S DISCOVERY

Lost Hand While Satisfying His Curiosity. By Telegram to The Freeman. Uniontown, Pa., March 25.—Little Charley White, 7 years old, and inquisitive, today is recovering from an original experiment in physics that had a startling end Friday.

Charley, sitting on the rear seat in school, wondered what would happen if a pin was stuck in a dynamite cap.

He stuck the pin. The cap exploded. Charley had a hand blown off. A second later he jumped through a window and was caught after a hard chase and given emergency treatment.

FEES OF CONDEMNATION COMMISSIONERS INCREASED

By Telegram to The Freeman. Albany, March 25 (Special).—Governor Miller has signed the bill by Assemblyman Van Wazeren which amends the condemnation law by increasing fees of commissioners.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Miami, Fla., March 25.—Robert Moore, pilot of the lost seaplane, Miss Miami, who was picked up by the tank steamer William Greene after clinging to wreckage of his plane for many hours, reached Miami today aboard a boat sent from Miami to take him off the rescue ship.

Moore was rushed to a hospital and was said to be in a serious condition. There are apparently no other survivors.

COALITION CANDIDATES MAJORITY IS REDUCED

By Telegram to The Freeman. London, March 25.—The returns of the parliamentary election held at Chertsey in Surrey, 19 miles west of London, made public today, show that Sir Philip Richardson, coalitionist, received 11,811 votes, while General Sir Hubert Gough, commander of the fifth army in France and a member of the Asquith group, polled 9,490 votes. The coalition's majority was reduced by 7,000.

MINERS ARRANGE STRIKE DETAILS

By Telegram to The Freeman. Cleveland, O., March 25.—With the resolute determination that there shall be no settlement of the strike called for April 1 in all anthracite and bituminous coal fields of the United States and Canada until the coal operators of the central competitive field, embracing western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, meet with union miners in a wage scale conference, members of the policy committee of the United Mine Workers today are speeding to their widely scattered homes to make final arrangements for a general tie-up of the coal industry.

At the last minute a decision was reached to call out at the same time miners employed in non-union fields and if the workers in these mines heed the call of their organized fellows, approximately 800,000 men will quit work. Officials still on the ground here today predicted that a large number of these men will join the strikers.

"It's a question how long they'll stick," said one leader, "but I believe that more than half of these men will unite with us in forcing the operators to come to terms."

LLOYD-GEORGE CUTS VACATION

By Telegram to The Freeman. London, March 25.—Official announcement was made today that Lloyd George has shortened his vacation by one week and will return to 10 Downing street Monday to take charge personally of the Irish situation.

It is understood here that the government is taking a grave view of the matter and that King George sent a request to Crichel, Wales, asking the premier to return at once.

It is said that the king is showing the gravest anxiety over the turn that events in Ireland have taken in the past 48 hours.

It has been intimated here that the government has no faith in the ability of Sir James Craig, to preserve impartial order between the Catholics and Protestants. There are now 14 battalions of British troops in the Ulster government area; the government is fearful that these may be used in an impartial manner, which action would result in virtual chaos.

The government is making every effort to put a sudden end to what is now conceded to be a fanatical war raging in North Ireland. Michael Collins, who was expected to arrive here tonight, has sent word that he cannot leave Dublin at the present time. Griffith and Duggan will arrive Monday, however, to lend their services in the cause of mediation.

Sir James Craig is expected here tomorrow. He will confer immediately with Winston Churchill in an effort to agree on common measures to end the murders and outrages now prevailing.

It is understood that Churchill will propose to Craig and Collins if he arrives, that the two of them agree to make an appeal to use their respective forces to end the disorders. The alternative to such action would be the British troops taking over the troubled regions in Ulster.

It is probable that Craig would welcome British troops instead of entering into any agreement with Collins.

De Witt Explains Ferry Claim Bill to Governor

Says It Is an Attempt to Obtain by Subtlety of Language Damages Allowed in Previous Bills Which Were Vetoed by Governors Smith and Miller.

Opposition to the bill of Senator Walton, which was passed by the senate in the closing hours of the legislative session and then sent to the assembly which also passed it, by which the county of Ulster and the state of New York would be compelled to pay consequential damages to the owners of the Skillet ferry by reason of the construction of the Rondout Creek Bridge, is embodied in a memorandum filed by MacDonald DeWitt with Governor Miller, to whom the bill now goes for executive action.

Mr. DeWitt's memorandum recites the vetoes of the two former Skillet bills, one by Governor Miller last year and one by Governor Smith the previous year, and reviews the history of the two Skillet bills introduced this year by Senator Walton.

The memorandum filed by Mr. DeWitt is as follows:

Senate Bill No. 1633—Int. 330-1761

Memorandum in Opposition

This bill provides in substance that the commission appointed to determine the compensation to be paid to the owners of land to be acquired in Ulster county for the purpose of carrying out the plan described in Chapter 157 of Laws of 1912, shall have power besides assessing the damages sustained by the owners of land taken for the purposes aforesaid, "to also assess, allow and state any and all injuries and damages, both direct and consequential, which such owners or any of them may sustain because of the execution of said plan," the consequential damages when so assessed to be apportioned by the commissioners between the County of Ulster and the State of New York.

The real purpose and effect of this bill is not apparent upon the face thereof, but a consideration of the relevant facts will disclose its significance.

The plan referred to in the law (now Section 120 of the Highway Law as amended by Chapter 18, Laws 1921) which authorize the highways constituting Route 3, including the erection of the State Highway Bridge across Rondout Creek from Kingston to Port Ewen in Ulster County and the construction of the road necessary to connect the southerly end of the bridge with the existing State Highway at a point between Slightsburg and Port Ewen.

It should be noted that the benefits of the bill are limited to the owners of land in Ulster county taken to carry out the plan and such owners only are allowed to recover the consequential damages which they "may sustain because of the execution of said plan."

Some of the land to be acquired in Ulster county to carry out the said plan is a strip about fifty feet in width running through the Hasbrouck Estate at Port Ewen. This strip is now under construction and when completed will constitute the new part of the State Highway connecting the bridge with the existing highway. The owners of this land are also owners of the land on both sides of Rondout Creek where the Slightsburg Ferry is operated. They own the fee in the existing highway leading from Port Ewen to the ferry slip. They also own the ferry franchise, ferryboat and ferry business.

These ferry owners claim that the value of their ferry business will be decreased when the bridge is opened because traffic, consisting principally of motor vehicles, will be diverted from the old ferry to the new bridge, and they want damages therefor. Bills authorizing the State Court of Claims to award them the damages were passed by the Legislature in the sessions of 1920 and 1921. The 1920 bill was vetoed by Governor Smith and the 1921 bill was vetoed by Governor Miller.

In the 1922 session two bills were introduced by Senator Walton of Ulster county at the request of these ferry owners. One (Senate Bill No. 367) sought to amend Section 152 of the Highway Law by inserting therein a provision giving the owners of any ferry business the value of which was impaired by the execution of any plan for any public improvement a claim against the state and county for both direct and consequential damages for any injury sustained thereby. This bill died in committee because, as I am informed, the members of the Senate Finance Committee refused to report out of committee in the face of the governor's veto in 1921 any bill which granted to the owners of Slightsburg ferry consequential damages resulting from the diversion of traffic from the ferry to the bridge. The other bill, however, (being the bill above mentioned) was passed—in the senate on March 16, and in the assembly on March 17, the last day of the session. It got through, I am informed, and was reported out of committee on the theory that it did not give the ferry owners any damages, that it had nothing whatever to do with the ferry damage claim. As originally introduced, the provision that the commission should assess all damages, both direct and consequential, which the owners of land taken may sustain "because of the execution of said plan," which provision is in the bill as passed, the clause "and the maintenance and operation of the bridge." This latter clause, which obviously would have given ferry owners damages caused by diversion of traffic was strictly out of the bill by amendment, whereupon the bill was passed in its present form giving the owners of land taken consequential damages sustained "because of the execution of said plan."

But the committee members who reported the bill and of course the members of the legislature generally who voted for it, had no knowledge of the facts above stated, and hence could not have realized the real purpose and effect of the bill.

The facts, however, disclose what the clever draftsman of this bill had in mind. The bill provides that besides stating the amount of damages sustained by the owners of land taken, the commission shall also assess "any and all injuries and damages both direct and consequential which such owners or any of them may sustain because of the execution of said plan."

The owners of the land taken, being also the owners of the ferry franchise and business claimed to have been injured, have sustained consequential damages because through the erection of the new highway traffic has been diverted from the ferry to the bridge and the value of the ferry franchise has been thereby impaired. The erection of the bridge and construction of the new highway was the execution of said plan and because thereof the consequential damages aforesaid were sustained. Hence, the ferry owners are entitled to recover such consequential damages under the provisions of this bill.

The merits of the claim for damages of these ferry owners were fully discussed in briefs submitted to Governor Miller last year, by Judge Hasbrouck on behalf of the ferry owners and by me in opposition. In view of the governor's veto of the claim bill at that time, I will refrain from further discussion of that subject in this memorandum, except to suggest that as last year's bill, which was an open and direct raid on the state treasury, was vetoed by the governor as contrary to the public interest then, it would seem proper that this bill, which attempts to accomplish the same end in an indirect and underhanded way, should be vetoed now.

Respectfully submitted, MACDONALD DEWITT, 140 Nassau Street, Borough of Manhattan, New York City.

NEGRO HELD FOR ASSAULTING GIRL

By Telegram to The Freeman. Washington, March 25.—Guarded by two deputy sheriffs to prevent possible attempts at violence, Robert Lewis, 20, a negro, is being held today in an improvised jail at McLean, Va., a short distance from the capital, suspected of having been the assailant of Miss Agnes Hawkins, a government worker, who was brutally assaulted on her little farm Thursday.

Lewis was arrested after an unceasing day and night search by posses. Threats of lynching have been made by the searchers. The attack on Miss Hawkins was particularly brutal. The girl was employed in Washington, and lived on a small farm a short distance from the capital. She went to the barn to feed some stock Thursday evening. In the gathering dusk a negro leaped upon her from behind and knocked her senseless. When she recovered consciousness, she was tied to a post in the barn with iron chains, stripped from a farming implement.

She is in a precarious condition. An effort will be made today to bring Lewis before her for identification.

HIS ANCESTORS MADE ULSTER CO. HISTORY

Edward Bruce De La Mater, who died at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., on March 16, 1922, was born at Stone Ridge, Ulster county, N. Y., in 1837. He was the eldest child of Radcliffe De La Mater and Jane Magdalene Eltinge. Mr. De La Mater was of French, Dutch and English lineage. Claude La Maistre (ancestor of the De La Maters in America) left his home at Richebourg in Artois, went to Amsterdam in 1652, in which year he married Hester DuBois, and shortly after came to New Harlem, where he began life as a carpenter. His educational training and wide experience gained in Europe peculiarly fitted him for the position of magistrate which the Harlemites offered him and which he filled for seven years. He also was a cadet in the militia in 1663. Of his descendants, Abraham, b. 1656, married Celeste Vernole, Cornelius (son of Abraham), born May 6, 1683, married Margaret Van Stenburgh. Abraham De La Mater, Jr. (son of Cornelius), in 1744 married Sarah Van Gaasbeck (who was the daughter of Abraham Van Gaasbeck and Sarah Bayard). Abraham Van Gaasbeck was the only son of the Rev. Laurentius Van Gaasbeck, second pastor of the Dutch Church in Kingston, who was educated in the University of Leyden and graduated with honors in 1674. He had previously married Laurencia Kellenae in 1673. He arrived in Kingston September 8, 1678, and at once entered upon his pastoral duties, served the church until 1680, when he died. Johannes, born 1754 (son of Abraham De La Mater and Sarah Van Gaasbeck) married Annetje Whittaker, whose son, Abraham I., Jr., b. May 1, 1782, married Hannah Radcliffe (dau. of Cornelius Radcliffe). They were living in 1820 in an old stone house on the east side of Wall street, Kingston, nearly opposite the court house, a frame building standing near the burying ground he used as a hat manufactory and sale shop; in the following year he moved to Stone Ridge. Radcliffe, born at Kingston, 1815 (son of Abraham I. Jr., and Hannah Radcliffe), married Jane Magdalene Eltinge (daughter of Jacobus Eltinge and Jane Roosa) (Jane Roosa, daughter of Petrus P. Roosa and Rachel De La Mater of Hurley). Thus we see that Edward Bruce De La Mater was a son of Ulster county. His father taught him to make harness, and in early youth he set out for Poughkeepsie to learn carriage trimming and building, which was his life work. He established a name for conscientious dealing. His men, who stayed with him for years, loved and respected him. March 27, 1861, he married Julia, daughter of Captain John Myers of Poughkeepsie. He is survived by two sons, John W. of New York city and Frederick Radcliffe of Poughkeepsie, four grandchildren, three brothers, Charles K. of Kingston, Elting of Stone Ridge, Radcliffe of Gloversville, N. Y., and one sister, Antoinette D. Ten Hagen of Kripplebush, N. Y.

Reliable, Low-Cost Service

The years of reliable, low-cost service for which the Hupmobile is so well known, form the real basis for judging its value.

The thing that people tell each other most often, about the Hupmobile, is that it is almost impossible to wear it out.

The first Hupmobiles ever built, 12 and 13 years ago, are in use today, all over the world.

Owners will tell you the Hupmobile's depreciation is slower and smaller; that its price as a used car is proportionately higher.

PAIGE

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CAR IN AMERICA

THE 6-66 LAKEWOOD

(SEVEN PASSENGER TOURING CAR)

HE WHO buys a seven passenger family car expecting much in comfort and dependability, is often willing to sacrifice a little versatility in performance.

A long wheelbase, 118 feet of vibrant springleaf, and deep nested coil springs in the upholstery are factors of comfort in the Paige Lakewood. Generous design in frame and running gear are factors of dependability.

The unlooked for surprise comes when you sit behind the wheel of this generous bodied car and find it doing things for you that you have never expected from a standard car with a standard motor. After all nothing can be said about Lakewood appearance or performance that it will not better say for itself.

WILL INSPECT WELCOME ARCH

This afternoon Mayor Crane, the members of the board of public works, Corporation Counsel Walter N. Gill, and City Engineer Henry D. Barrow will inspect the welcome arch under construction at the city entrance on Albany avenue.

The board of public works has not decided as yet whether to tear the arch, which is partially completed, down, or go on with the work, but the probabilities are that the arch will be demolished.

The question of the arch has been puzzling the board for some time. It was started last summer under the Sanford administration, at which time it was said it would be built of brick at a cost of about $500.

Since Mayor Crane and the new board of public works assumed office it was discovered that someone had placed an order with a Poughkeepsie concern for artificial blue stone, and that the arch would cost in the neighborhood of $5,000 if the last plans were carried out.

BASKETBALL AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

In the high school inter-class basketball league this week there were four games played, all by the girls. The Junior boys were to play the Seniors Friday afternoon in the final game but for the reason that the Seniors had few of their men in school the game was postponed.

Monday afternoon the Junior girls slapped the Senior girls 12 times to the Seniors' 10, and thereby the Junior girls won 12-10. And having been put in a retaliatory mood the Seniors revenge the embarrassing defeat by winning over the Juniors Tuesday, 14-13. Miss Hilda Iseman was the big "cheese," ten individual points, which is going some for the girls' class games. Thursday afternoon Miss Iseman took a back row seat when the Seniors played the Freshmen girls, for her colleague Margaret Kelder made 19 points to her 14; Miss Louise Polhemus made the remaining units, six, to make the score 39-22. The budding Helen Byrne made the lonely two points for the Freshmen. But the Freshmen have some pride and that is that they seldom acknowledge defeat at the Juniors' hands; they won over the Juniors Friday afternoon 16-6. That game was probably the last for the girls.

COHOES WIN FLAG IN SECOND HALF RACE.
The Cohoes team captured the honors of the second half race in the New York state basketball league, by defeating the Amsterdam quintet at the latter's court, Friday evening. Cohoes has one more game to play but the outcome will not affect its standing.

Gloversville was the winner of the first half flag. A championship series between these two teams will be staged.

Gould (Going to Scotland).
George J. Gould will spend the coming summer in Scotland, according to recent announcement in New York City, instead of taking his vacation at Partridge Lodge in the Catskills. It is thought his change of vacation-scene is due to the death of Mrs. Gould last fall, both Mr. and Mrs. Gould for many years having spent the summer at their Catskill mountain home.

K.H.S. WON DEBATE AT POUGHKEEPSIE

Never did a Varsity Debating Team representing Kingston High School return to the city with more ornate laurels than when Friday evening the K. H. S. Varsity won a 3-0 victory over the Poughkeepsie High Varsity after a spirited debate on the question, "Resolved, That the United States should grant immediate independence to the Philippines."

The affirmative side of the question was upheld by Porter Shahan, leader and first speaker; Richard Townsend, second speaker; Frank Blauvelt, third speaker, and Bernard Mintzer, alternate.

As the first speaker on the affirmative, Mr. Shahan, was the best speaker that the Smith Brothers had. Possessed of a clear, commanding voice and a vigorous fund of ideas, he held his audience intent upon the debate through the duration of his speech. The second speaker, Mr. Townsend, and the third speaker, Mr. Blauvelt, did their best to influence the judges that they were in the right, but somewhat the locals held the to a disadvantage.

Arthur Flemming made an excellent use of the rules of the debate as laid down by the Rutgers Intercollegiate Debating Council. If a speaker is misquoted by an opponent in the rebuttal the leader of the misquoted team is allowed to arise and to correct the quotation. This Mr. Flemming did "par excellence."

In the speakers of the negative side Kingston High had an irrefutable combination. Arthur Flemming, leader and first speaker; Carl Schantz, second speaker, and Blair Muller, third speaker; John Tremper was alternate. It seemed as if the locals were palpitating with ideas; the first shot set off by Flemming blew quite a hole in the Poughkeepsie advance forces which seemed to repulse their offensive. Then, in his turn, Schantz, the "Webster" of the Webster-Hayne Club, was up to the very top-notch of speaking form. Muller made a clean touchdown from the kick-off. Never faltering in his delivery and never jumbling his ideas and words together, his swath was clean.

Schuyler Fox, the presiding officer of the debate, who is the principal of the Poughkeepsie High School, stated that not only is the question of great interest in scholastic debating societies, but also in the collegiate engagements. Vassar College has three inter-collegiate debates scheduled upon the topic and last week they upholding the affirmative side of the question, won a decisive victory over Mt. Holyoke team, 3 to 0.

In view of the fact that the Vassar Collegettes were upholding the soft same side as the Poughkeepsie lads, the Bridge City dwellers expected a demoralizing victory to attend their efforts. But this is how it happened.

Miss Elmendorf, a member of the K. H. S. faculty and an alumna of Mt. Holyoke, was in attendance at the collegettes debate and she made a careful diagnosis of both sides and trotted home with the choicest arguments, which were given to the local team. The Vassar-Holyoke combat was fought out at Poughkeepsie.

Another debate will be held by Kingston against the winners of the Newburgh-Cornwall debate held last evening at Cornwall and to settle arrangements for the next affair the K. H. S. boys went to Newburgh today.

The K. H. S. Varsity were not fighting for the laurels without moral support, for 50, or more, traveled by motor bus and private cars to Poughkeepsie to witness the slaughter. Herded together in the front of the auditorium, the local audience made the rafters to sing and the walls to reverberate with good old Kingston yells and songs.

With Miss Katherine Dean at the piano, the school song and "Stand Up and Cheer" were offered for the delectation of the Smith Brothers. Indeed, Ken LeFever's cheer gang made the down-river section appear nauseated. But in all of the rival yells was a vein of good fellowship.

The Webster-Hayne Debating Club of this city chartered the ferry "Transport" to make an extra trip to accommodate the auto bus and the private cars which went to the debate, all of which was gratefully appreciated by the motorists.

This evening the two Varsity teams will try to land a drubbing to the two Walden High School Varsityes. The first, the girls' game starting promptly at 7:15. Despite the fact that these two games were to be the last of the season, Manager Tremper has booked Stamford High School, Stamford, Conn., to play here next Friday evening, March 31. The Stamford boys have an unblemished record for the present season.

WE'RE GETTING A LITTLE SKEWSE SAYS LONDON PAPER
By Telegram to The Freeman.
London, March 25.—The Pall Mall Gazette, one of the mouthpieces of the Lloyd-George government, today commented as follows on the ratification of the four-power Pacific pact, by the United States senate yesterday:

"That isolation is impracticable is gradually percolating into the American mind."

"Leaving the Allies to do all the laborious work, then asking to share in the proceeds, is too indecently inequitable for any self-respecting nation to persist in."

Dr. Lippard At Baptist Church.
The Rev. William D. Lippard, D. D., will speak at the Albany Avenue Baptist Church Sunday morning on conditions in central Europe. Dr. Lippard is associate secretary of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society, and was supercargo of the "Ship of Fellowship" that was sent last fall by American Baptists to the countries of Europe filled with much needed clothing and other articles. He will tell of his experiences on this trip in Germany, Poland, Latvia and other countries of central Europe.

The French for "What shall I say of it?" is given first, and that has been corrupted into our word "quarry."
